BRIDGEPORT NOTES.

Rev. Moore, of Chattanooga, Tenn., held a very interesting service at the Old Baptist church Sunday afternoon, which was well attended by the church-goers of Bridgeport. Mr. Howard Chubb and Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Corruthers and Mrs. Andrew Hill spent a pleasant afternoon in our city Sunday. Mrs. Vernie Elliott spent the day visiting Mrs. Booker in South Pittsburg, Tenn. Mr. W. B. Lawrence spent Sunday at his home in Stevenson, Ala. Mr. Chas. M. Hill made a business trip to Chattanooga, Tenn., Saturday. Mr. W. M. Hatchett was on the streets Monday afternoon for the first time in several weeks, being confined to his sick room. Mrs. Lucy Rutledge and Miss Johnnie Horton, of Winchester, Tenn., spent Sunday in our city visiting their brother, Mr. W. M. Hatchett. Odd Fellows Lodge No. 3868, of Bridgeport, is planning to give a grand entertainment Thursday night, November 30, at Eagle Hall. The sick here are very much improved.

DICKSON NOTES.

Rev. S. M. Utley was here on the 18th and 19th and held his quarterly conference. He preached two strong sermons. Those present enjoyed his discourse. Rev. Mr. Ross is beginning to work in the new M. E. church here. Rev. Wm. Stoker, of Clarksville, was here and preached as usual at the Second Baptist Church. Those who heard him were well pleased. The parents and friends are cordially invited to attend the school rally to be given at the St. James A. M. E. Church December 8. Dr. Townsend, of Nashville, has been engaged and they are anxious to have a crowded house, as the speaker is a great orator. Mrs. Ford, of St. Louis, is visiting Mrs. Julia Box this week. Mrs. Love Dickson, of Hordense, spent Friday and Saturday here. Mrs. Edith Deshazer is preparing for a big school exhibition Thanksgiving at Padue, Tenn., where she is teaching. The mass-meeting held for a closer union among the citizens of Dickson was a great benefit. More mass-meetings and closer union. Rev. Utley passed through here Saturday. Rev. R. Van, the new presiding elder of Dickson District, is here. The Dickson brass band has been engaged for the rally on December 9th. Miss Posey, the sister of Dr. Posey, of Centerville, is visiting Mrs. Lula Hill this week. Miss Lillie Levels was in Nashville Sunday. Rev. J. F. Dean is preparing an entertainment at St. James

A. M. E. Church Thanksgiving. Mrs. Fannie Holbert, who has been sick for the past eight weeks and under the treatment of several doctors, is up and able to go home under the treatment of Dr. Miles. Those who are sick are Mr. George Sparkman, Genie Holbert, Mrs. Hattie Lott, Mrs. Mollie McConison, Rev. R. Von, Jessie Orr and Mrs. Willis Ramey.

LEWISBURG NOTES.

Presiding Elder T. W. Johnson, of the M. E. Church was here the 17th and 18th to hold the first quarterly conference for this year. He preached two wonderful sermons. The conference was quite a success. All seem pleased with the new presiding elder, Rev. Johnson. Rev. M. F. Riley filled his pulpit at the Baptist Church Sunday. He has done much good since his pastorate here. The church was greatly in debt, but through his untiring efforts, we are glad to say that all accounts have been paid and he anticipates, at an early date, making many needed improvements. Rev. W. C. Hunt, to the delight of his many friends, was returned to Allen Bethel A. M. E. Church for another year. Miss L. M. Smiley has closed her school at Robinson Fork, and left for Alabama to take charge of another school. We wish for her much success in her new field. Miss Eddie Slaten and mother, of Columbia, were here last week on business. Mr. House, of Murfreesboro, has been here, the guest of his daughter, Mrs. G. M. Ransom. Messrs. Claud and John Yowell are here mingling with friends. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes, of Wartrace, Mrs. Bettie Hayes, of Shelbyville, and Mr. Dickson, of Nashville, were guests of Dr. L. E. Martin last week. Mrs. E. J. Haynes, of Nashville, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Annie Liggett. Mr. Wm. S. Thompson, the piano tuner, has been here this week. Prof. O. F. Bishop and Miss Mattie Davis have closed their schools and are at home again. Prof. S. J. Mayberry visited friends at Belfast last Saturday. Mrs. H. S. Davis entertained Friday from 2 to 5 p. m. at her residence on Verona avenue in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Hughes, Mrs. Hayes and Mr. Dickson, guests of Dr. Martin. A marriage that came as a surprise to their many friends was that of Dr. L. E. Martin and Miss Willa Hill, H.T.I., which occurred at Columbia, Saturday morning. Rev. W. C. Hunt officiated. They were accompanied to Columbia by Miss Claudia M. Davis. We wish for them a peaceful voyage on the matrimonial sea. Mrs. P. H. McBride entertained at dinner Sunday Dr. and Mrs. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Hughes and Mrs. Hayes. Mrs. A. Phillips, of Nashville, wife of Rev. A. Phillips, pastor of the M. E. Church, is here. Mrs. Ike Stone, after many weeks of suffering, died Thursday. She is survived by husband and four small children. Galilee M. E. Church and parsonage were totally destroyed by fire last Monday night. The origin of this fire is unknown. Everything in the parsonage was lost, the church furniture was saved. The pastor and congregation have the sympathy of the entire community. They hope to rebuild their church at an early date. Mr. Crawford Gant and Mrs. Emma Kercheval were quietly married Sunday at the home of Rev. G. W. Marsh.

MURFREESBORO NOTES.

Mr. H. G. Woodruff, of Nashville, spent a few holidays with his cousins, Mrs. Idella E. Miller and Mrs. Mattie J. Willard. He enjoyed himself finely, it being his first visit to Murfreesboro. Mrs. Emma Stanton has been quite sick for a month, but is now able to be out. Miss Allie B. Dean and Mr. Mose Youngblood were the guests of Miss Annie M. Prim on last Saturday evening at her home, 502 West Main street. Miss Mattie C. Smith and Mr. Percy Jordan were the guests of Miss Annie M. Prim on last Sunday.

McKENZIE NOTES.

Mrs. Cynthia Dinwiddie died at her home last Thursday, aged sixty-five. Her funeral was preached at the C. M. E. Church, Rev. Williams officiating. Fernandas Adkinson is quite sick. We are glad to say that Mrs. Rainey is able to be up again. Mr. Rob. Coleman will open school at Shiloh Monday. Miss Johnson will open school at Cherry Wood. Miss Mary Johnson is preparing to go to Jackson to attend school. Miss Ethel Bowden and Miss Pharell Cooper are attending school in Jackson. Mr. Aaron Hudson, of Dyer, is visiting Miss Mary Gregory. Mrs. Amanda Scott has returned home after spending several weeks in Arkansas. The C. M. E. Church is preparing for a grand entertainment on Thanksgiving.

PULASKI NOTES.

The first quarter's examination of the Pulaski High School was held a few days ago, and many of the children are feeling good over their marks. The following pupils made the highest average of scholarship in their respective grades for this quarter. First Grade: Helen Taylor; Second Grade: Milton Fagan; Third Grade: Lenora Baity; Fourth Grade: Mabel Clay; Fifth Grade: Van B. McLaurine; Sixth Grade: Odean Marchbanks; Seventh Grade: Lena Ballentine; Eighth Grade: Thos. P. Turner, Jr. Rev. D. Howard preached to his congregation at Pigeon's Roost last Sunday and reports progress on his rally out there. Thirty dollars was collected. Great crowds have been attending the A. M. E. Church each Sunday to hear the new pastor, Rev. A. Brooks, and the financial collections are good. Rev. A. J. James (Big Daddy) was in town Sunday and preached to his people at the First Baptist Church both in the day and at night. Rev. James lives at Athens, Ala., though his church here is so very liberal and loyal to him that it is always a pleasure for him to come to labor with them. New Mt. Zion Baptist Church, which is located near the depot, is without a pastor. Rev. D. B. Butler, who pastored the church for some time, resigned a few weeks ago. We have learned the following facts relative to the good name of Rev. D. B. Butler by Rev. Jno. Bell, Deacon of the church which the Rev. Butler resigned: That Rev. Butler is a Christian gentleman of high moral character, an able minister of the gospel, a good citizen, and his manly character demands respect wherever he may cast his lot. Mr. Westley Potter continues very sick. The Ideal Art Club is to be entertained by Dr. J. C. Gantt, Friday evening, December 1st, at the Fields' residence in Belview. Rev. J. M. Gentry has returned from Alabama, where he went to fill his appointment with his new church. The Rev. reports that three additions were added to the church by baptism last Sunday, and we were reminded of the old saying that it's never too cold to be baptized. The family of Rev. A. Brooks arrived this week from Columbia. Dr. W. A. Lewis and Mr. N. Reynolds went to Elkton Tuesday to prepare and initiate some more candidates into the Calanthe Court. Rev. G. R. Norman was in town last Saturday. He and his wife left on that day for their new home at Shelbyville, Tenn. His many friends here wish him success in his new field of labor.

WILLIAMSPORT NOTES.

Rev. N. Smith left Saturday for Alabama; he returned home Tuesday. Rev. R. B. Flowers filled the pulpit Sunday for him. He preached two excellent sermons. Mrs. Ada L. Wadkins returned home Monday from Sardis, Miss., where she spent a month visiting her mother, Mrs. Rachel James. She reports a nice time. Miss Maggie B. Crosby was the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Scott Crosby, Sunday afternoon. Miss Nettie Booker, of Centerville, was visiting relatives here at this place last week. Miss Sallie A. Alderson was the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Martha Parker, Sunday afternoon. Thanksgiving there will be a 11 o'clock sermon and at night a debate, and reception. We are expecting a grand time. Mr. H. F. Hutchinson and brother, Lenord, made a flying trip to Columbia Sunday. Miss Maud Williams came home Friday and stayed until Sunday. She was accompanied back to Chester-Ridge by Mr. Robert Foster.

SOUTH PITTSBURG NOTES.

Thanksgiving will be observed at the churches with appropriate services. Rev. E. J. Cox, District Superintendent of the Chattanooga District of the M. E. Church, held quarterly meeting at Randolph's Chapel Sunday, the 26th. A large and appreciative congregation was present morning and evening to hear him. In the afternoon District Superintendent Cox was driven to Richard City by Rev. A. Hutchinson, where the former preached at 3 p. m. a powerful sermon. The lectures on Health given by Dr. W. J. Astrapp last Friday were very interesting as well as instructive. His first lecture was to the Richard City school, Mrs. J. M. Hawkins, teacher, at 9 a. m. A representative number of patrons and friends were present to witness the lecture. The large and spacious school room was beautifully decorated with evergreens and national flags, and two very impressive and appropriate mottoes were conspicuously displayed, surrounded by draperies of tricot school in the afternoon the doctor's lecture was equally as impressive. Mrs. Ella E. McElroy, teacher. Only the pupils and teacher were present. Mr. Bart Leigh is lying at his home near the T. C. and I. furnaces with a stroke of paralysis. Mrs. George Bennett, near the corner of Second street and Cedar avenue, was stricken with paralysis one day last week. Mr. Wash Barnes is sick of pneumonia fever on Walnut avenue. Mrs. Mattie Eason Hawkins has just recovered from an attack of the grip. Mrs. Emma Bivens and Miss Dossie Perkins visited Richard City recently. Master Merlin Martin has entered Morristown College as a student. Miss Janie A. Lightfoot is at Whitwell this week. Rev. T. G. Hadden, of the A. M. E. Church, holds interesting services each Sunday. His wife, Mrs. Hadden, of Asheville, N. C., is to join him in his work here soon. The parsonage of the A. M. E. Church is being newly papered and generally renovated. Miss Martin, the daughter of Mr. Theodore Martin, of near McMinnville, was the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Martin recently. She was on her way to Morristown to re-enter Morristown College. Mr. Harvey Hight is expected home from Nashville to spend Thanksgiving. Special services at Mt. Bethlehem Baptist Church next Sunday at 7:30 p. m., December 3rd. Rev. William Simmons, pastor. A program prepared by the B. Y. P. U. will be carried out. The public is cordially invited.

BUFORD NOTES.

Dr. Wm. Buford, of Hot Springs, Ark., is here visiting relatives. Mr. Jno. Gantt, of Marion, Ark., is here on business, and is guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Martin. Mr. Ed. Buford, of Nashville, is expected to spend Thanksgiving at his county home with his wife, Prof. Ed. Rose, of Lynville, and Dr. Buford worshipped at Simpson Chapel last Sunday. There was an appreciative congregation which listened to an instructive and spiritual sermon. Rev. Keys succeeded Rev. Cooper here, and the people seem to be well pleased. Rev. Cooper carries the best wishes of his success in his new field of labor. Mrs. Ed. Buford is back at her country home after spending a week in the city of "Rocks," while there she entered her son Ira K. in Roger Williams University. Ira had been indisposed for a few weeks, but had recovered sufficiently to begin school work. Diphtheria has been rather prevalent since our last, but is about eradicated at this writing. A little girl of Mr. Henry Robinson died of the malady. Mrs. Annie Bills Taylor is very sick at her father's home, Rev. Bills, of pneumonia. Mrs. Sarah Sharp is also sick. Mrs. Amanda Martin sustained a painful injury of a finger by falling out of a high door recently. The finger was badly mashed and seems to respond to treatment rather slowly. Mr. Fields Taylor, Jr., who has been in Ken-
